Bibliography: Mayo Clinic Health System Practice-Based Research Network

Abstracts

12. Pons G. Impact of socio-demographic characteristics, disease load, cardiovascular risk, and system level variables on patients who fail to improve HbA1c below 7%. Abstract presented at: American Diabetes Association 70th Scientific Session; 2010; Orlando, Fla.

Panel

Posters

2. Targonski PV, Schrader LM, Erickson RA. Facilitating practice based research through local learning collaboratives: Pairing providers and investigators to drive team science initiatives. Poster presented at: Science of Team Science; 2012; Chicago, Ill.
7. Loepfe TR. Appropriateness of medications used at the end of life. Poster presented at University of Wisconsin Institute for Medical Research; 2010; Madison, Wis.
8. Pedace TM. Medication use near the end of life. Poster presented at: Minnesota Hospice and Palliative Care Conference; 2010; Minneapolis, Minn.
9. Pons G. The characteristics of and tools used by individuals with diabetes mellitus type 2 whose glycohemoglobin is less than 7% vs. those whose glycohemoglobin is greater than 7%. Poster presented at: 14th Annual Minnesota Health Services Research Conference; 2010; Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn.
10. Ingram CJ. The STEP study: Standing elderly blood pressure: The standing measurement of blood pressure in elderly in the primary care clinic: A standardized approach. Poster presented at: Minnesota Academy of Family Physicians; 2008; St. Louis Park, Minn.
Presentation

Workshops

2. Targonski PV, Erickson RA, Kluge K, Schrader LM. Closing the loop on research ideas: From conception to submission of high quality research proposals. Workshop at: AHRQ National PBRN Research Conference; 2009; Bethesda, Md.

Manuscripts

1. Stahl D. Tuberculosis infection screening in Minnesota's critical access hospitals. Minnesota Medicine, November 2012; 47-50.